GLIMPSE SHOWING A NEW SOCIETY STUNT

New York's Idle Rich Devise New Plan to Make Themselves More Rediculous — "Screaming" Time

ALICE LONGWORTH TAKES LIVELY PART

FROM LOS ANGELES TIMES.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 28.—(Exclusive dispatch.) There may be nothing new under the sun, but that doesn't go to show that Newport society can't provide an eye-opening stunt before Old Sol creeps above the horizon.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard M. Thomas entertained at a fancy dress ball Saturday night, and, of course, there was "something doing every minute." Along about 2 o'clock Sunday morning, however, about two hundred of the three hundred guests had enough and sought downy couches and repose.

The other hundred—mostly the younger element—were just beginning to get warmed up, and they continued the festivities until a n hour latter. Then some one had an inspiration, and the whole "bunch" formed a procession, and, led by Moicure Robertson, who was garbed as an Indian chief, and accompanied by a band of twenty pieces, spread out to wake the town. They did.

With Mr. Thomas in the role of a toreador and Mrs. Thomas dressed as Mme. Du Barry, and with a whole flock of society belles, and gay young scions of millions, as Spanish dancing girls, bull fighters, Salomes, gypsies, sailors, ladies of the harem, queens of history, Indians, Chinese mandarins, bandit queens, pirates, flower girls, and figures taken from the drama, the procession cake-walked up a n d down the board promenade until tired.

Then some one thought of those who had gone early to bed, and a dozen or two houses were visited, the tired dancers roused from their dreams and compelled to join in the joyful procession, willy-nilly—and sometimes pink pajama-clad.

One of the features of the morning was a new dance to the strains of "Alexander and His Band," danced to a Spanish movement (Hou-chie cou-chee). This was led by Mrs. Charles DeL. Oelrichs, in a costume characterized principally by red silk stockings and red shoes. Mrs. Nicholas Longworth and Mrs. Reggie Vanderbilt participated in this feature.

The "grizzly bear" dance was a scream. It was repeated time and time again, and Congressman and Mrs. Longworth viewed it for the first time—and then some.

During the evening Miss Constance Warren heard a chauffeur ask another for a cigarette, and she presented her handsome cigarette case and emptied its contents on the palm of the admiring chauffeur. This is regarded as another of Miss Warren's original stunts, and in being original she is giving Miss Eleanor Sears, of Boston, a run.

Early Sunday morning parties are quite the rage now, and "society simply gasps with the pleasure gained from them."
